Announcement of Evening Classes

St Andrew's Theological College is pleased to announce the introduction of evening course units in theological studies during 2010, commencing the week of Monday 22 February 2010. These units are credited towards graduate level programs of the Sydney College of Divinity: the Graduate Certificate in Arts, the Graduate Diploma of Arts and the Master of Arts (admissions criteria apply). Some units have pre-requisites.

The schedule of units for Semester 1, 2010, will be:

Mondays: Introduction to Pastoral Theology (Rev. Alan Galt)
Tuesdays: Greek 1 (Dr Gregory Fox)
Wednesdays: Introduction to the Old Testament (Rev. Dr John El Karaan)
Thursdays: Introduction to Orthodox Theology (Dr Philip Kariatlis)

The schedule of units for Semester 2, 2010, will be:

Mondays: Theory and Practice of Pastoral Counselling (Rev. Alan Galt) and
Introduction to the New Testament (Dr Margaret Beirne)
Tuesdays: Greek 2 (Dr Gregory Fox)
Wednesdays: The Early Church (Dr Ken Parry)
Thursdays: Early Christian Patristic Theology (Rev. Dr Doru Costache)

Classes are conducted over a 13-week semester and between 6:00-9:00pm each week. Units are open to qualified men and women irrespective of religious affiliation. They may also be undertaken by university students as electives towards their own undergraduate or postgraduate degrees, subject to approval by their Faculty or Department.

Tuition fee per unit: Graduate Students ($920); Undergraduate Students ($820); Auditors ($430). FEE-HELP government loan scheme is available, subject to eligibility criteria. Students should enquire with the Registrar about the availability of scholarships. Applications for Semester 1, 2010, should be lodged by Friday 12 February 2010. Applications for Semester 2, 2010, should be lodged by Friday 16 July 2010. Late applications may be considered subject to the limitations of class sizes.
